

Alan's Brilliant Checklist! Elements of the course that need to be completed...

Class Discussions

Post welcome introduction on C2C by July 12

Read readings 1 – 3 and post individual comments on C2C by July 12

Read reading 4 and post individual comments on C2C by July 19

Participate in 5 all-class discussions on C2C that relate to the various topics being facilitated by each of the groups (2 per week, except for week 5, where we discuss the guest speaker chat)

Contribute to the conversation about Holistic Learning on C2C (ongoing)

Contribute to the conversation about Teaching and Learning with Technology on C2C (ongoing)

Team Project

Introduce personal strengths to team on Blackboard discussion board by July 19

Design an educational website to be completed by August 3

Save all chats in C2C team forum

Project report from each team member to summarize and present project on C2C by August 3

Peer evaluation of team project by August 9

Evaluation of one other team's project by August 9

Discussion Facilitation (With Team)

Moderate an all-class discussion about the prescribed topic for the week

Post a summary of the discussion with resources at the end of the week

Partner Reading

Read Reading 5

Chat with partner about reading questions and the design of a blended course

Summarize findings and post on C2C by August 2

Individual Project

Web-based project to be completed & presented by August 16

Reflective Paper

1500 – 2000 word paper about completing the final project (absolute deadline August 23)

Self-Assessment

Self-assessment of involvement in the course by e-mail (by Aug. 23 with Reflective Paper)

Self-assigned mark

Link to final project

Other Tasks

Set up the blog feature in Blackboard and post an entry (first weeks)

Post a resource to the Resources discussion board on Blackboard (by end of course)

Read and respond to questions on the Tech Q&A discussion board on Blackboard (as needed)